The theme of our annual is a development of the name of our yearbook--"Excelsior". The name "Excelsior", meaning higher, was chosen by the first annual staff in 1949. We feel that the poem "Excelsior" written by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow portrays goals applicable for Christians of all ages. Longfellow himself said that in "Excelsior" his aim was "to display, in a series of pictures, the life of a man . . . resisting all temptations, laying aside all fears, heedless of all warnings, and pressing on to accomplish his purpose."

Excelsior

by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The shades of night were falling fast,
As through an Alpine village passed
A youth, who bore, 'mid snow and ice,
A banner with the strange device,

EXCELSIOR!

His brow was sad; his eye beneath,
Flashed like a falchion from its sheath,
And like a silver clarion rung
The accents of that unknown tongue,

EXCELSIOR!

In happy homes he saw the light
Of household fires gleam warm and bright;
Above, the spectral glaciers shone,
And from his lips escaped a groan,

EXCELSIOR!

"Try not the Pass!" the old man said;
"Dark lowers the tempest overhead,
The roaring torrent is deep and wide!"
And loud that clarion voice replied,

EXCELSIOR!

"O stay," the maiden said, "and rest
Thy weary head upon this breast!"
A tear stood in his bright blue eye,
But still he answered, with a sigh,

EXCELSIOR!

"Beware the pine tree's withered branch!
Beware the awful avalanche!"
This was the peasant's last Good-night;
A voice replied, far up the height,

EXCELSIOR!

At break of day, as heavenward
The pious monks of Saint Bernard
Uttered the oft-repeated prayer,
A voice cried through the startled air,

EXCELSIOR!

A traveler, by the faithful hound,
Half-buried in the snow was found,
Still grasping in his hand of ice
That banner with the strange device,

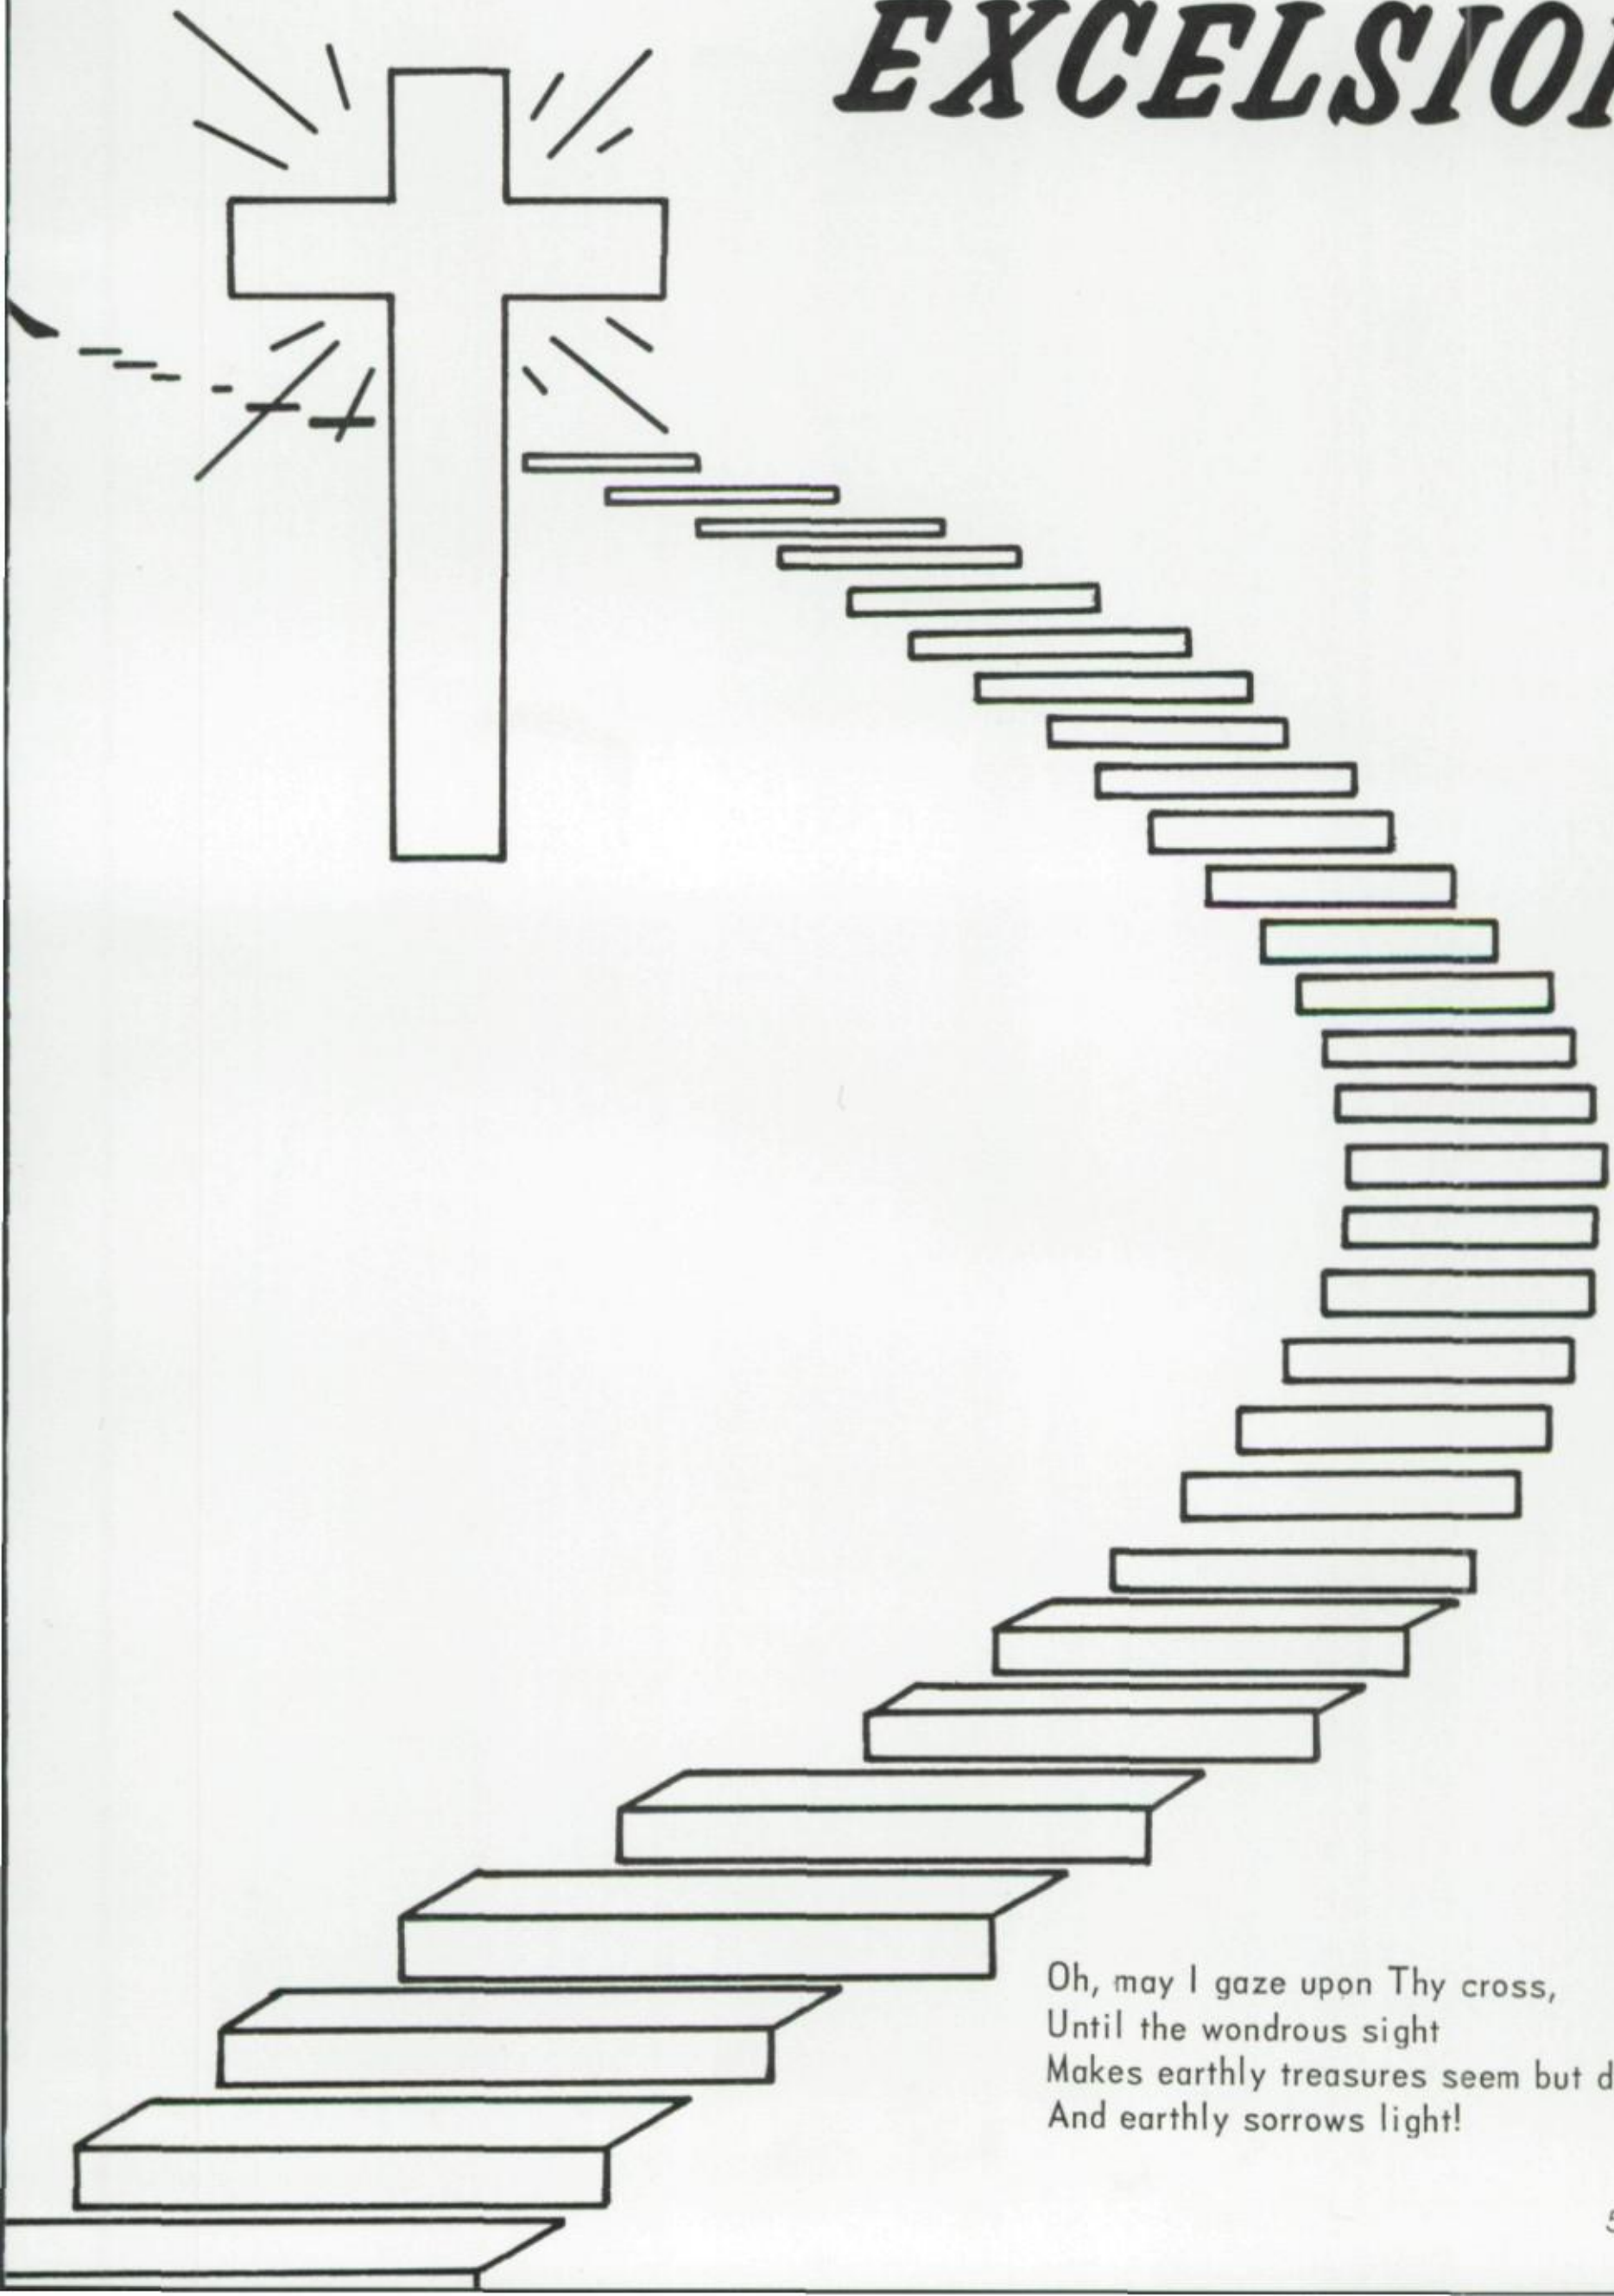

EXCELSIOR!

There in the twilight cold and gray,
Lifeless, but beautiful, he lay,
And from the sky, serene and far,
A voice fell, like a falling star,

EXCELSIOR!

Our days at LCHS have been days of preparation for pressing on to that higher calling of our Lord Jesus Christ. The wish of the annual staff of 1967 is that the memories represented in this book and the goals of the students may always be in keeping with God's Word as found in Philippians 3:13&14 "Brethren, I count not myself to have laid hold: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

EXCELSIOR

Oh, may I gaze upon Thy cross,
Until the wondrous sight
Makes earthly treasures seem but dross,
And earthly sorrows light!

Mr. Korthuis

Dedication

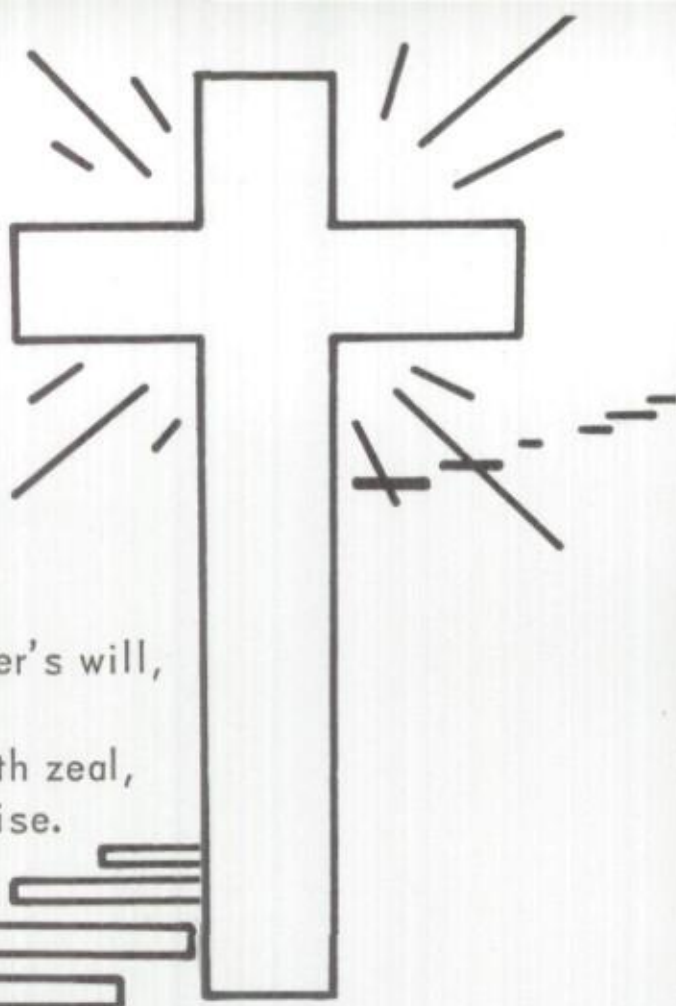

The annual staff finds it indeed fitting to dedicate this 1967 Excelsior to you--Mr. Robert Korthuis.

The student body sincerely appreciates your diligent work as teacher, coach, and advisor. Many students will long remember your enthusiastic teaching and Christian conviction in the classroom while unfolding the events of history.

Your leadership in athletics and emphasis on good sportsmanship has inspired excellent cross-country teams and an exceptionally good year in varsity track. We'll be looking forward to next year as you add to your responsibilities the coaching of varsity basketball.

We hope you have enjoyed your years at Lynden Christian High and will continue to receive God's blessings in the future.

When I have learned my Father's will,
I'll joyful teach His ways;
My thankful lips, inspired with zeal,
Shall loud pronounce His praise.

ADMINISTRATION

The quality of mercy is not strained; it droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven.
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd-it blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

EXCELSIOR--still higher--ever upward--this is the definition according to Webster. Noble words, these. To what are you applying this word, Excelsior. Obviously not to such a mundane thing as climbing a stairs. Educationally, we frequently hear such prosaic statements as "we climb the ladder rung by rung" or "we are climbing."

The thought is progress or advancement. This is true in the physical sense up to a point. The baby at first is helpless. Soon he may crawl. Then the first halting steps. Finally, the peak of physical condition is reached and he can run at great speed and jump over a high wall. Then begins a slowing down as age advances. The person becomes less and less able to perform physical activity until at last he moves very slowly and the word "Excelsior" in this case is mockery.

Qualified Administrator And

Only in the spiritual sense can the goal of Excelsior (ever upward or still higher) really be attained completely. The most decrepit Christian of any age can still go higher spiritually.

The Bible's remedy for "ever upward" does not rest in man but in God. James 4:10 says, "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and He shall lift you up". 1 Peter 5:6 says the same thing. Matthew 23:12 records, "Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be brought low. He that shall humble himself shall be exalted". Isn't that hard to believe in today's world with it's emphasis upon the sovereignty of man rather than God?

A song writer caught the vision when these words were penned--I'm pressing on the upward way, new heights I'm gaining every day. Still praying as I onward bound, Lord, plant my feet on higher ground. I want to live above the world, tho' Satan's darts at me are hurled; for faith has caught the joyful sound, the song of saints on higher ground. Lord, lift me and let me stand, by faith on heavens table land, a higher plane than I have found, Lord, plant my feet on higher ground." Excelsior!

Able Men Compose Ruling Body

I consider it a privilege as chairman of the board and in name of the board to write a few lines in your annual.

As your motto this year you have adopted "Excelsior" which according to Longfellow in his poem "Excelsior" is an expression of aspiration toward greater heights.

What are your aspirations for the future? You have already laid much of the foundation for the future. Raised in a Christian home, trained at a Christian School, your biggest aspiration in life should be to be a Christian. And as a Christian you should set a goal toward which you want to work. Twelve years of education are behind you. Consider seriously to further your education. Since we are living in an age of specialization, you should specialize yourself, so that as a Christian you can use your talents to the best of your ability and above all to the glory of God.

You have now reached a point in your life where a decision has to be made. Make this decision prayerfully and intelligently.

As board of the Lynden Christian School we congratulate you with your achievement and extend to you our best wishes for the future.

For the Board

Clarence Zylstra, President

uated from Calvin College with a B.A. degree. He also attended Purdue University where he received his M.S. degree.

The only man in the family, Mr. Timmer certainly is not henpecked! A sports enthusiast, he takes time off from his work for golfing. Mr. Timmer teaches geometry and chemistry and coaches our basketball team. He is probably the only man in school who has to listen to miscellaneous excuses for tardiness and absence every school day. Mr. Timmer was graduated from Calvin College.

One interesting thing about Mr. Mellema is that he is single. . . yet. As a sports enthusiast, he especially enjoys spending his spare time on the golf course. He is a native of the Lynden area, having graduated from Lynden Christian in 1961. He was coach of the basketball team, and baseball team. Mr. Mellema earned his B.A. from WWSC.

Having earned his B.A. from WWSC, Mr. Blankers teaches Algebra I, II, III, and Physics. When not busy with teaching, he enjoys swimming and golfing. One of his hobbies is woodworking. He also coaches the track team who did very well this year. He is the busy father of two small children.

Teaching, typing, and Bible I and II, keep Mr. Vander Haak very busy. In the spare time he has, he likes to read and work around his yard. Mr. Vander Haak and his sons find that painting takes up a lot of their summer vacation. This year Mr. Vander Haak served as a Senior advisor. He earned his B.A. from Calvin college and his M.A. from University of Iowa.

Crossword puzzle books fill Miss Haverhals' home. Any spare moments she may have are spent in this delightful pastime. A graduate of Calvin College, she teaches bookkeeping and Latin. Along with teaching, Miss Haverhals' finds time to ably advise the Pep Club and Drill Team.

With his main interests in biology, Mr. Stegink also finds time to read, fish, and work out of doors. For some years he has served as an advisor for the Science Club, who this year planted tulips in the school mall. Mr. Stegink was grad-

A newcomer to LCHS, Miss Baker earned a B.A. from Calvin College in Grand Rapids. In her leisure time she enjoys sewing and she loves to "just go fun places and meet interesting people". She also enjoys sports and claims swimming and basketball to be special favorites. This year Miss Baker directed the Senior play and helped in the costuming of the Musical.

For Mr. Anderson music is not just a profession. In his spare time he listens to it, not only on recordings, but also at many concerts. He enjoys reading it and even composes a little of his own. Originally from Blaine, Mr. Anderson earned a B.A. degree from Bethel College in Minnesota. This year Mr. Anderson tried something new at LCHS. A Musical, H.M.S. Pinafore, was given and was a complete success.

Mr. MacKay was a new addition to our teaching staff. He teaches shop and Agriculture. He is a graduate of WWSC. Mr. MacKay recently returned from the Navy and is still very active in the Naval Reserves.

Counselling is one of Mr. Bulthuis' busiest jobs. This service is much appreciated by all high school students. He also teaches sociology and psychology. While serving in Nigeria, Mr. Bulthuis claims he enjoyed hiking through the African bush. At home he raises tropical fish for a hobby. Mr. Bulthuis earned a B.A. from Calvin and his M.A. from WWSC.

An avid fisherman, Mr. De Hoog is an outdoor enthusiast. Along with fishing he enjoys golfing in his spare time. He teaches Health and St. History. He was our coach for varsity football, and Freshman basketball and baseball. Mr. De Hoog spent some of his younger years here in Whatcom County. He graduated from Mt. Baker High School and earned his B.A. degree from WWSC.

With her own personal interests in cooking and sewing, Mrs. Richendrfer can instruct the Home Economics students well. The mother of 5 children, she finds herself very busy; but in her spare time she likes to cook new and interesting dishes. She earned a B.S. from the University of Washington and her B.A. from WWSC.

Introducing English to the Freshmen and counseling take up much of this man's time. Mr. Vander Pol is a fisherman at heart and he likes to just "relax and read". This year Mr. Vander Pol helped in the production of the H.M.S. Pinafore. He is the sponsor for the debate team and annual staff. Mr. Vander Pol is interested in music as he leads a church choir. Recently he earned his M.A. from WWSC.

Advising the Hi-Lite staff takes up much of Mr. Ympa's time. Mr. Ympa's primary responsibility is to guide the Seniors through English Literature. Among his hobbies are reading, golfing, and gardening. Mr. Ympa graduated from Dordt College in Iowa where he received his B.A. degree.

Here's a real outdoor man! An excellent gardener, Mr. Boot once claimed to have dug up a skull. Mr. Boot teaches Algebra and Reformed Doctrine. He received a B.A. degree from Dordt and this is his first year at LCHS. This year Mr. Boot and his wife accompanied the Choir and Band to Portland, Oregon. Mr. Boot is a native Canadian but claims to enjoy the "good old USA".

The Agriculture class this year was taught by two men, each taking three six week periods. Both Mr. Polinder and Mr. Starkenburg graduated from WWSC. Mr. Polinder recently finished his military service with the Army and is now busy building up his own farm. Mr. Starkenburg owns and manages a nearby dairy farm also. We're certainly appreciative of their willingness to leave their work and instruct this class. Mr. Starkenburg is not shown.

Holding true to what she teaches, our art teacher enjoys painting and drawing. Watching birds is one of her favorite outdoor sports; inside she likes to work with ceramics and she also cooks alot. Mrs. Meenk also is an excellent photographer and develops her own film. She earned her B.A. and M.A. from Western Washington State College.

Many graduates from LCHS received their instruction in US and World History from Mr. Korthuis. In addition, Mr. Korthuis coaches the cross country, track team, and J.V. Basketball teams. Among his interests are hunting, fishing and hiking. He also enjoys outdoor sports of all kinds. Mr. Korthuis graduated from LCHS and received his B.A. from Calvin College.

An able office hand, Mrs. Van Loo will always answer questions for anyone who may have some. In what spare time she has Mrs. Van Loo enjoys sewing. This is her first year of working at LCHS.

Arriving early each morning and leaving late in the afternoon is this very capable secretary. Mrs. Werkema is kept busy helping our Superintendent. Most of her summer vacation is spent at school keeping school records up to date. She enjoys playing the organ and spends a great deal of time in books.

To organize books and magazines, to keep the library in tip top shape--this is the job of Miss

Zylstra, our librarian. She earned a B.A. from WWSC in Bellingham and she claims to like to travel and read. Miss Zylstra also likes to work in her yard. Her services at LCHS are much appreciated by all.

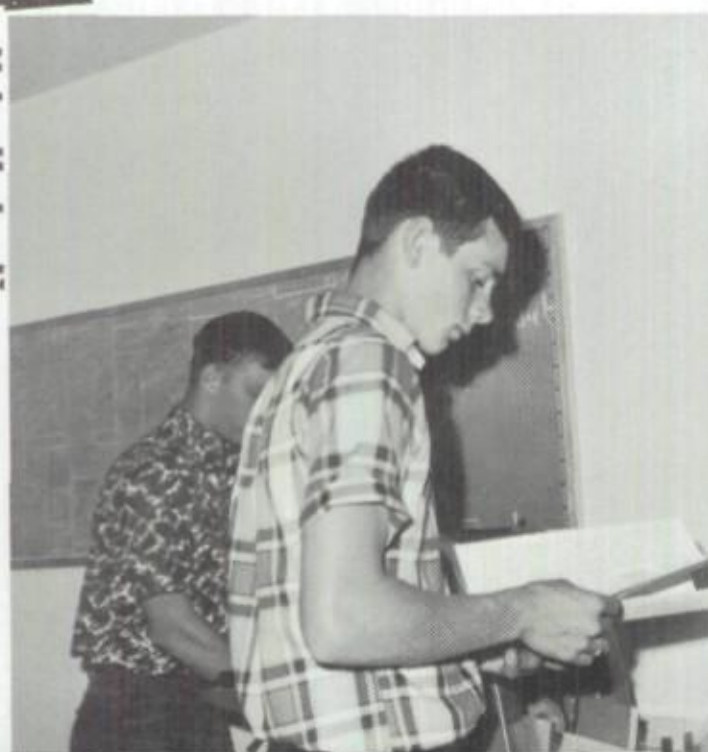

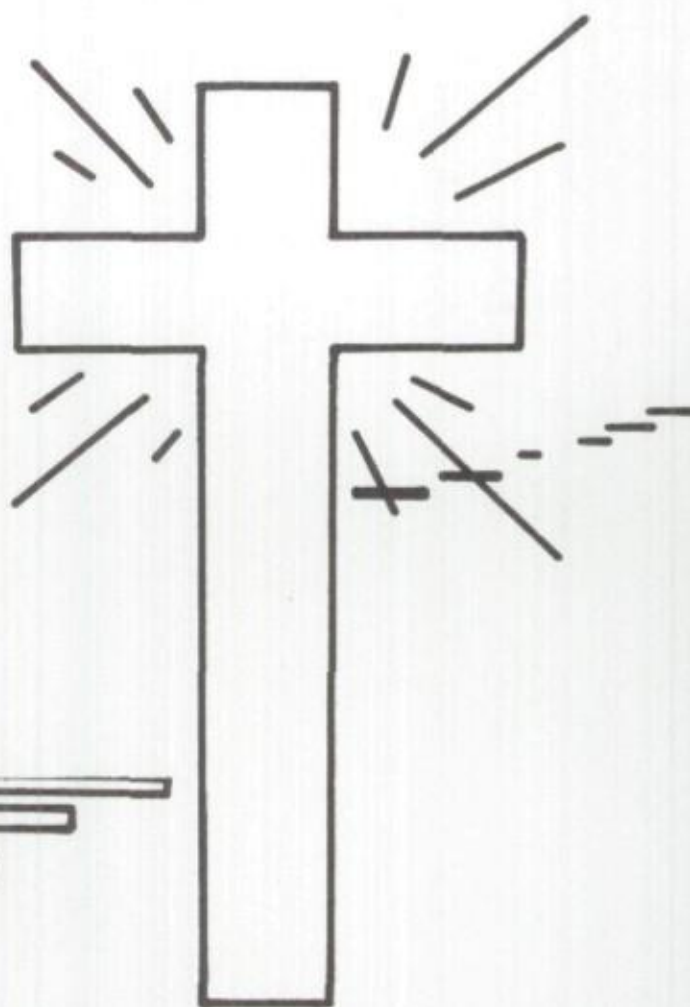

Scrubbing, sweeping, waxing, and mopping are only some of the many jobs of our janitor, Mr. Bouma. Mr. Bouma enjoys his work in the mall area best of all. His janitor work keeps him busy six days a week. In his spare time Mr. Bouma enjoys fishing but he says he doesn't have enough time. We'll certainly miss his steady tread through the halls next year.

SPIRIT PROMOTED BY ENTHUSIASTIC GROUP

Pep Club is energetic girls organized into one bubbling mass that screams, laughs, claps its hands and sometimes cries. It paints hundreds of posters to promote our games; it raises money through bake sales and book sales in order to finance the All-Sports Banquet; and it attends games as faithfully as the participants traveling to many places to support our team. This throbbing pulse of navy and white which we call Pep Club certainly lives up to its name.

Each Monday evening during basketball season this eager group met to practice. A whistle and off they go. Up and down the floor--performing difficult steps and making different figures. Under the expert guidance of Sally Scheffer, the Drill Team often marched with the band. They usually performed at Friday night home basketball games. Their intricate patterns were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

AND THE BAND PLAYED ON

"No, no! You're missing those accidentals! Come on, let's get this right now, people!" And so the band, under the direction of their new leader, Mr. Anderson, played on.

Director: Mr. Anderson

As usual several concerts highlighted this year's hard practice. The first November concert was sacred, and drew a large crowd. For the Christmas Concert the entire music department put on a program--with the aid of the speech class.

This year again the band profited greatly by attending the Spring Musicales which was held at Portland. Later in the spring several of the band members participated in the production of the H.M.S. Pinafore. To top the year off the band and choir gave a beautiful performance at the Spring Concert.

Director: Mr. Anderson

"Alright, warm up!" was heard by members of the choir each day as third hour began in the music room. Not only did they fill the room and halls with music but they also sang for the enjoyment of many different audiences in a number of various places. Their first performance was at the Reformation Day Rally. Then at Thanksgiving they participated in the Choir Festival. Once again the choir raised their voices in testimony to God that His truth was still marching on. A month later with the combined efforts of the music and speech department an enjoyable concert was presented at Christmas. During the second semester the choir traveled to Portland to participate in the annual musicale. Their hard work and determination was rewarded by receiving the highest rating of all choirs. The last appearance of the sixty-four voice choir was in the Spring.

Accompanist: Vickie Van Sweden and Gladys Meenk.

Choir Provides Special Music

Throughout the year the annual staff collects tidbits to make writeups; it spends many minutes getting the right picture; it exhausts hours putting this record together. We have combined the days of school, the nights of fun and all the most memorable moments into a few pages. We have tried to excel, to reach for higher goals hoping that you may find enjoyment in reminiscing in the years to come.

These are some of the few exclamations that Mr. Ypma says every Friday before the Hi-Lite appears. The Journalism class' efforts have been rewarded this year. For the staff again received high recognition from the National Scholastic Press Association.

Another year is drawing to a close and the work of the student council is finished until the next term. We of the student council wish to thank the students, faculty, and Mr. Boxum, our advisor, for the cooperation they have displayed.

Our student body is truly the best I have seen, and the attitude on the whole is one to be proud of. I was especially pleased with the sportsmanship you displayed after our first difficulties; it was a show of good Christian conduct. Thank you student body.

The activities we sponsored were the usual. We planned the mixer, sold ASB cards, organized the Talent Assembly, held elections for the new ASB officers and the new cheerleaders, and we set up the committees for chapel. ASB cards were sold during enrollment this year, this was the first time we did it this way and we found that it worked very well.

As we end the year, we the Seniors of the Student Council would like to remind the future leaders of the school and the Student Body to remember always that you are Christians and to conduct yourselves as Christ expects you to. Always keep your school a thing of which you can be proud. Even though we had failures we hope you will be able to profit from them. We wish you the best for next year.

Lots of research and practice goes into making a debate speech, the debaters realized again this year. And then the work has hardly begun. Background material must be found and learned, cases studied, rebuttals presented and delivered practiced. The talents of these debaters were displayed throughout the state, and especially in Tacoma, where they received individual rewards. In Northern Division Debate the four-man team of Ed B., Paulette S., Barbara T., and Gerald B., took second place. A very rewarding year was experienced by all.

ACTIVITIES

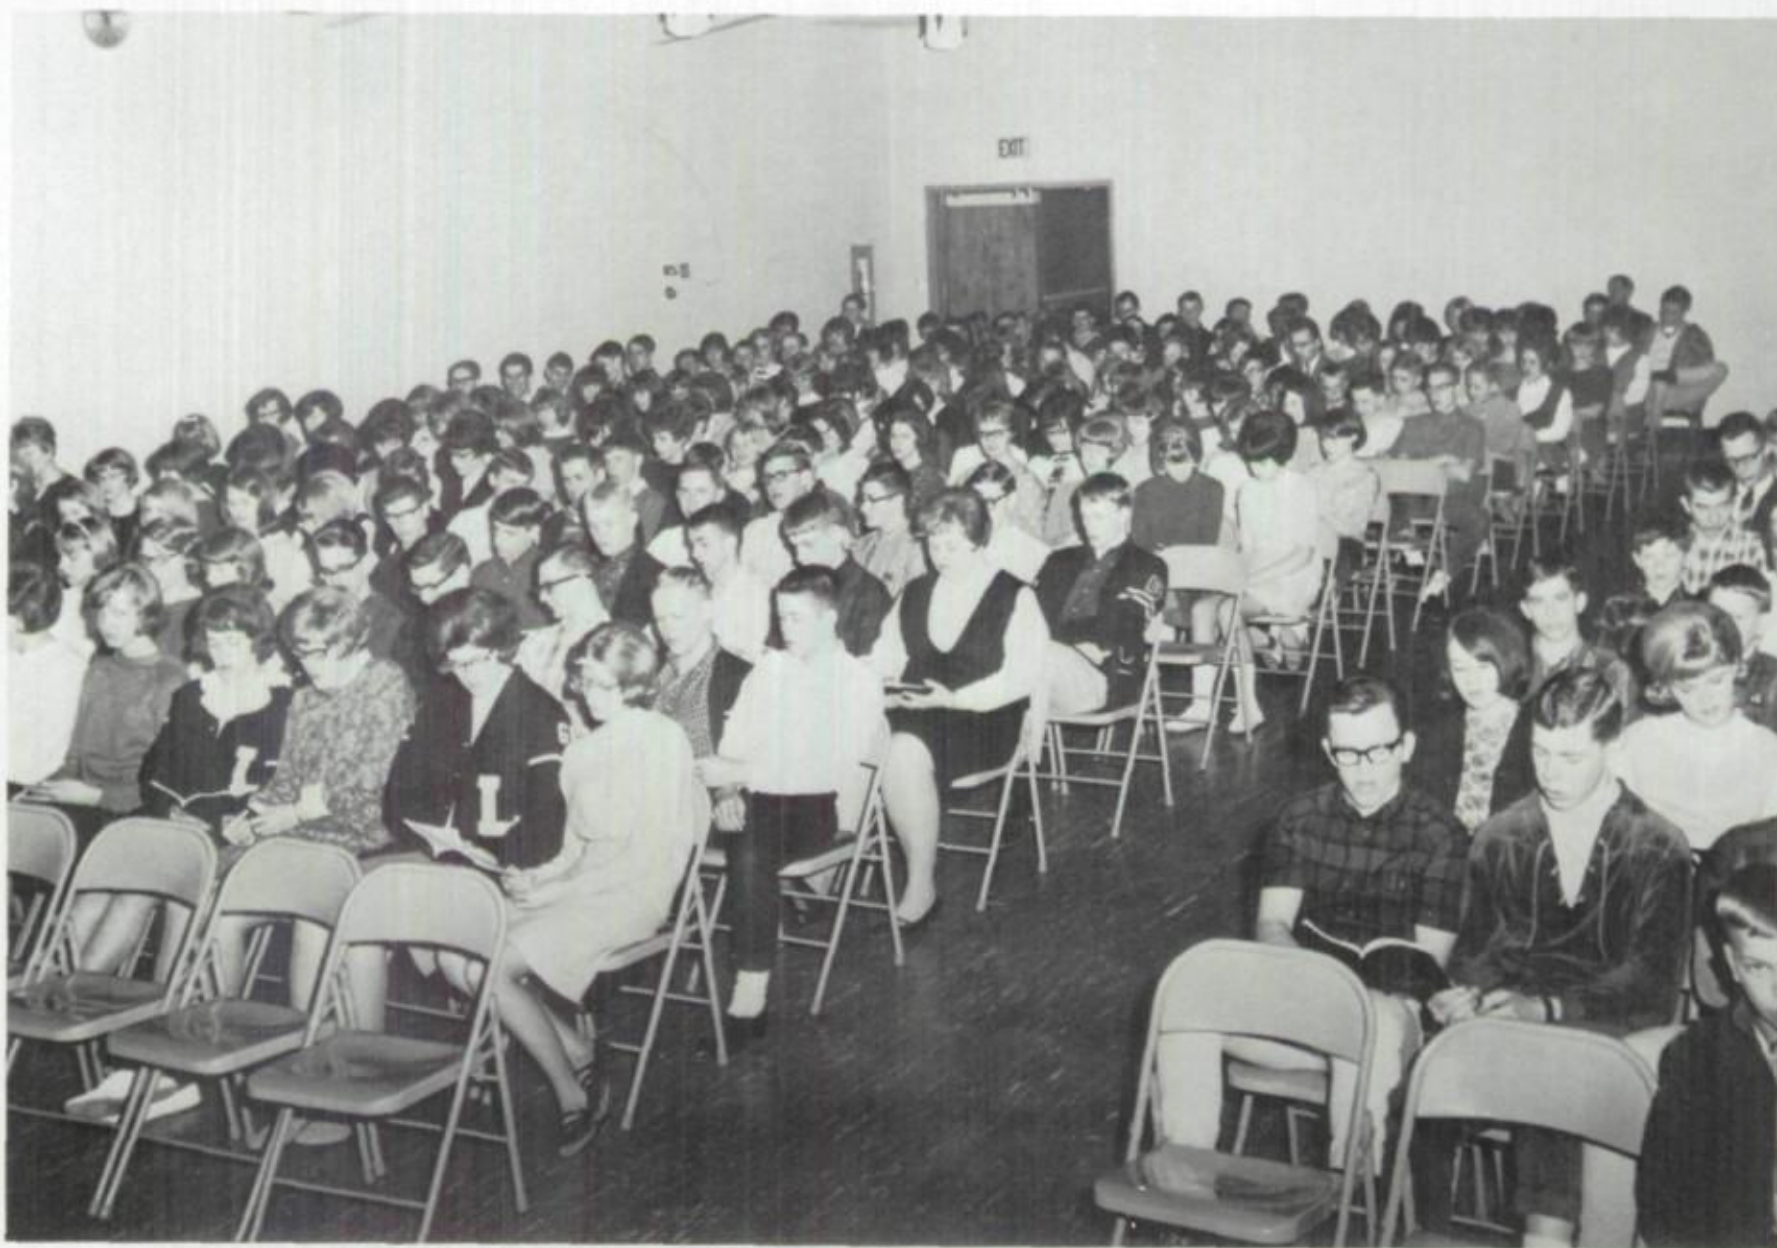

And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.

Higher goals this year were especially sought after in chapel every Tuesday and Friday. Students and teachers met in the assembly room to be directed from God's Word. Especially meaningful were individual student speakers. Special numbers were given by groups or individuals who shared their talents.

A lot of credit for making the preparation for chapel goes to Mr. Vander Haak, who was in charge of getting guest chapel speakers once a week. Teachers also took part by talking to us each Tuesday. Student Council members arranged for special numbers, song leaders, piano players, and scripture readers, all of which were taken from the student body.

Student Participation Makes

Chapel More Meaningful

Freshman were the general target of amusement at this year's annual all-school Mixer. The students did an excellent job of welcoming the freshmen, new students, and new teachers, and making them feel at home in LCHS.

Freshmen initiation highlighted the first party of the year. Some ate tasty treats such as bouillon cubes. Others carried members of the opposite sex across the floor. This burden almost proved too much for some frosh boys. The new teachers, after being blindfolded, fulfilled their assignment by feeding each other chocolate pudding. Several finished their debut looking like Little Black Sambo.

NEWCOMERS HEARTILY WELCOMED TO LCHS SCHOOL

Posters, and booster buttons were seen all around LCHS during the trying week of elections. At the annual election assembly, skits were given and campaign managers gave rousing speeches. Means such as force, threats, candy, and promises were used by the candidates to gain votes. Ballots were cast, counted and amid shouts of joy, sighs of relief, stifled moans, and unshed tears, the victors were announced.

As tradition at LCHS, Steve handed his gavel over to Gary, Jerry to Jim, Marlene gave her minutes book to Linda, and Sue handed over the responsibility of caring for our money to Nyla.

New Leaders Announced

With the assembly room jammed full of boisterous students and anxious sponsors, the annual talent assembly started with a bang. Each class had fifteen minutes in which to present dramatical and musical talent. The audience witnessed a fashion show, interviews with famous people, and Bumtown, U.S.A. The trophy was captured by the Juniors who presented a hillbilly wedding, shotguns and all. The Seniors took second place with a Batman and Robin fairy tale.

Talent Springs Forth

Girls Model Stunning Creations

Amid the gay colors of Spring the Senior Home Economics students modeled outfits and ensembles which they had made in Home Ec class. Mothers, Aunts, and friends, turned out to watch and had an enjoyable time. Lunch was prepared by the students. The Sr. Girls Trio and Alice De Jong performed special music. Gladys Meenk played background music while Susan Bulthuis and Beatrice Kooy narrated.

Our "Chain of Lyncs"

Honored at Banquet

Chains and more chains decorated the assembly room for this years banquet given by the Pep Club. The theme was carried out by paper chains which hung from the ceiling. These linked a track shoe, a baseball bat, a basketball, and football, symbols of the four major sports at Lynden Christian. Here the following athletes were honored: Dick DeWaard-Outstanding Senior Player Award for basketball Gary Van Loo-Inspirational Award in football, Dale Hendricks-Darigold Sportsmanship Trophy, Gord Terpstra-Coaches Award for outstanding defensive work in football, and Jim VanRy-Statistician.

Mr. Timmer was especially honored since he has decided to resign as head basketball coach, a position he held for twelve years. The alumni association thanked Mr. Timmer for his many years of service by awarding him with a beautiful clock trophy.

Flowers, Candle light, Set Atmosphere

Gerard and Nyla revealed the Seniors' futures.

Janet recalled past incidents in the Seniors' lives.

Presiding as master of ceremonies was Gary.

Gary and Elaine were the honored couple of the evening.

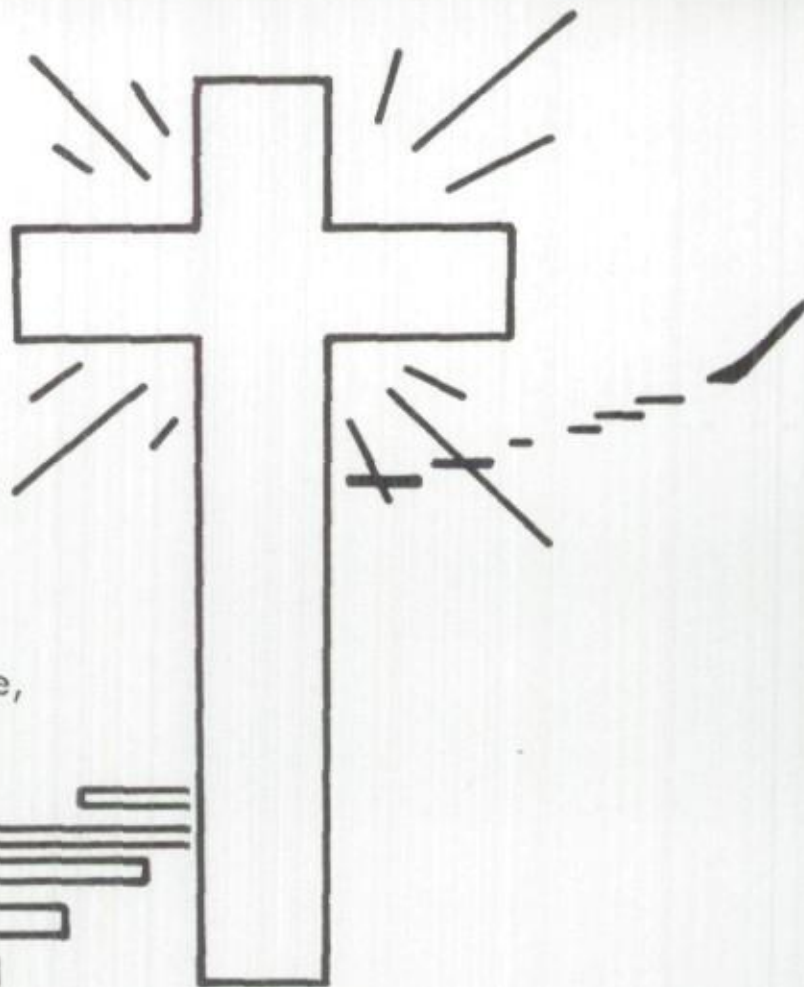

Corsages, long dresses, bouteneers and soft music set the atmosphere for the last formal occasion of the Seniors.

This year's theme "Some Enchanted Evening" was beautifully portrayed by paper flowers hung from the ceiling and palm trees "growing" all around. The tables, too, were decorated in accordance with the theme.

Alice De Jong and Janice Doesburg, and the Jr. boys quartet provided the evenings entertainment with Gary Van Ry acting as emcee.

What I possess, or what I crave,
Brings no content, great God, to me,
If what I would and what I have
Be not possest and blest in Thee.

SPORTS

Training and teamwork, spectators and action contribute to the spirit of loyalty in our school.

Determination, hard work, and love for the game gave the Lyncs' gridders their most successful season. After two years of "biting the mud" our boys pulled themselves up and faced their foe. They began turnouts in the heat of August, and, as their friends spent time on the beach getting tan, they drilled on offense and defense. As school started and the season progressed, the dry, torn sod turned to mud; but the practice continued. The more teams they played, the harder they practised; and the harder they practised, the higher the dividends they received. Winning five out of eight games shows much improvement and promise for the years to come.

Lyncs Display Undying Spirit

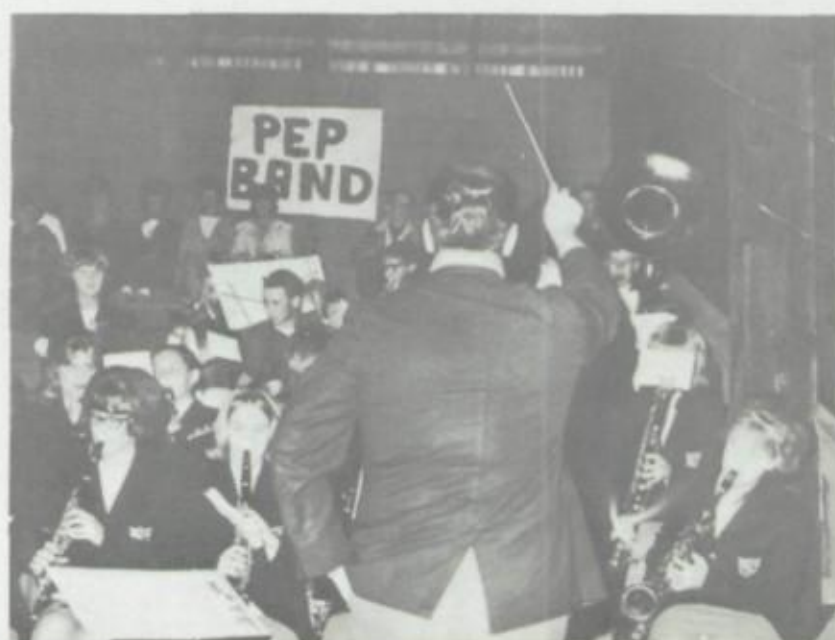

Injuries dwindled their numbers at times but never their spirit. The teams lack of depth proved a deciding factor to their overall success. Before the year was over, the Lyncs had compensated for this deficiency by continual hard work and team cooperation. Through their tireless efforts, they accomplished an outstanding seasons record. Each player was capable of executing his job skillfully, a key factor which led to the Lyncs' successful season.

"Conquer District, on to State!" This was the cry of many of the Lyncs fans in the 66-67 basketball season, as our team worked their way on to victory. This year proved to be very successful and exciting with a 15-8 seasonal record. Even though many of the players were off the team at the onset of the season, the Lyncs fought on for third place title in the county.

Setting a new record at District for the longest game was only one attainment. We conquered the Lions in a four overtime thriller. After this we were assured of second place in district. Our wish had come true, we were headed for State.

All told the Lyncs did a really great job this year. As Mr. Timmer put it, "After you've beaten the Lions twice in one week, there's really nothing left to do."

The band played, the cheerleaders yelled and the pep club screamed. The game had finally begun. The seats were crowded with spectators. The gym was stuffy, yet the enthusiasm never died. The reason we yelled was for our team. There were a great variety on the court--sophomores, juniors, and seniors played. They used knowledge and experience well and won many games. We are behind them because they stand for our school and they're great.

Under the coaching of Mr. Anton Mellema, the LCHS J.V. team won ten games out of their seventeen played. Sparked by the excellent playing of his five starters they showed much promise for next year.

The main thrust of Jayvee play is to gain game experience for next year's varsity hopefuls. Thus Mr. Mellema drills them on the basic skills of dribbling, shooting, and rebounding; and tries to let each boy get as much actual game experience as possible.

Backed by the hard playing of the four Seniors on the squad, the Lynce nine came into third place slot in the County League Baseball standings. With the fine pitching of Dale Hendricks and rookie Hank Roorda, and the hard hitting of LCHS sluggers Van Loo, Brandsma, Bosman, and Hendricks, they won many games. The five returning squad members have had much experience and the outlook for the future looks very bright.

Strike Three---You're Out

Harriers Race to New Records

Harriers of LCHS ran hard and far this year, trying to match old records and make new ones. Racing up hills and down, dodging muddy traps, jogging through unfamiliar territory — these were drills and thrills for such athletes. By continued practice and team cooperation, they were able to hold their own against all competitors. Leading the team effort was Gord Van Corbach who set a new course record of 10:05.

Outstanding Team Sets New Records

The crack of the starters gun, the thud of driving feet, the grunts of the weight lifters, and the glimpse of a flying javelin are some of the sights and sounds of a track meet. This year the LCHS track team under the excellent coaching of Mr. Korthuis had a very successful season. They broke eight of the old school records and took first place in the Sub-District meet at Blaine. Several of the boys rated high enough to qualify for the state competition in Ellensburg.

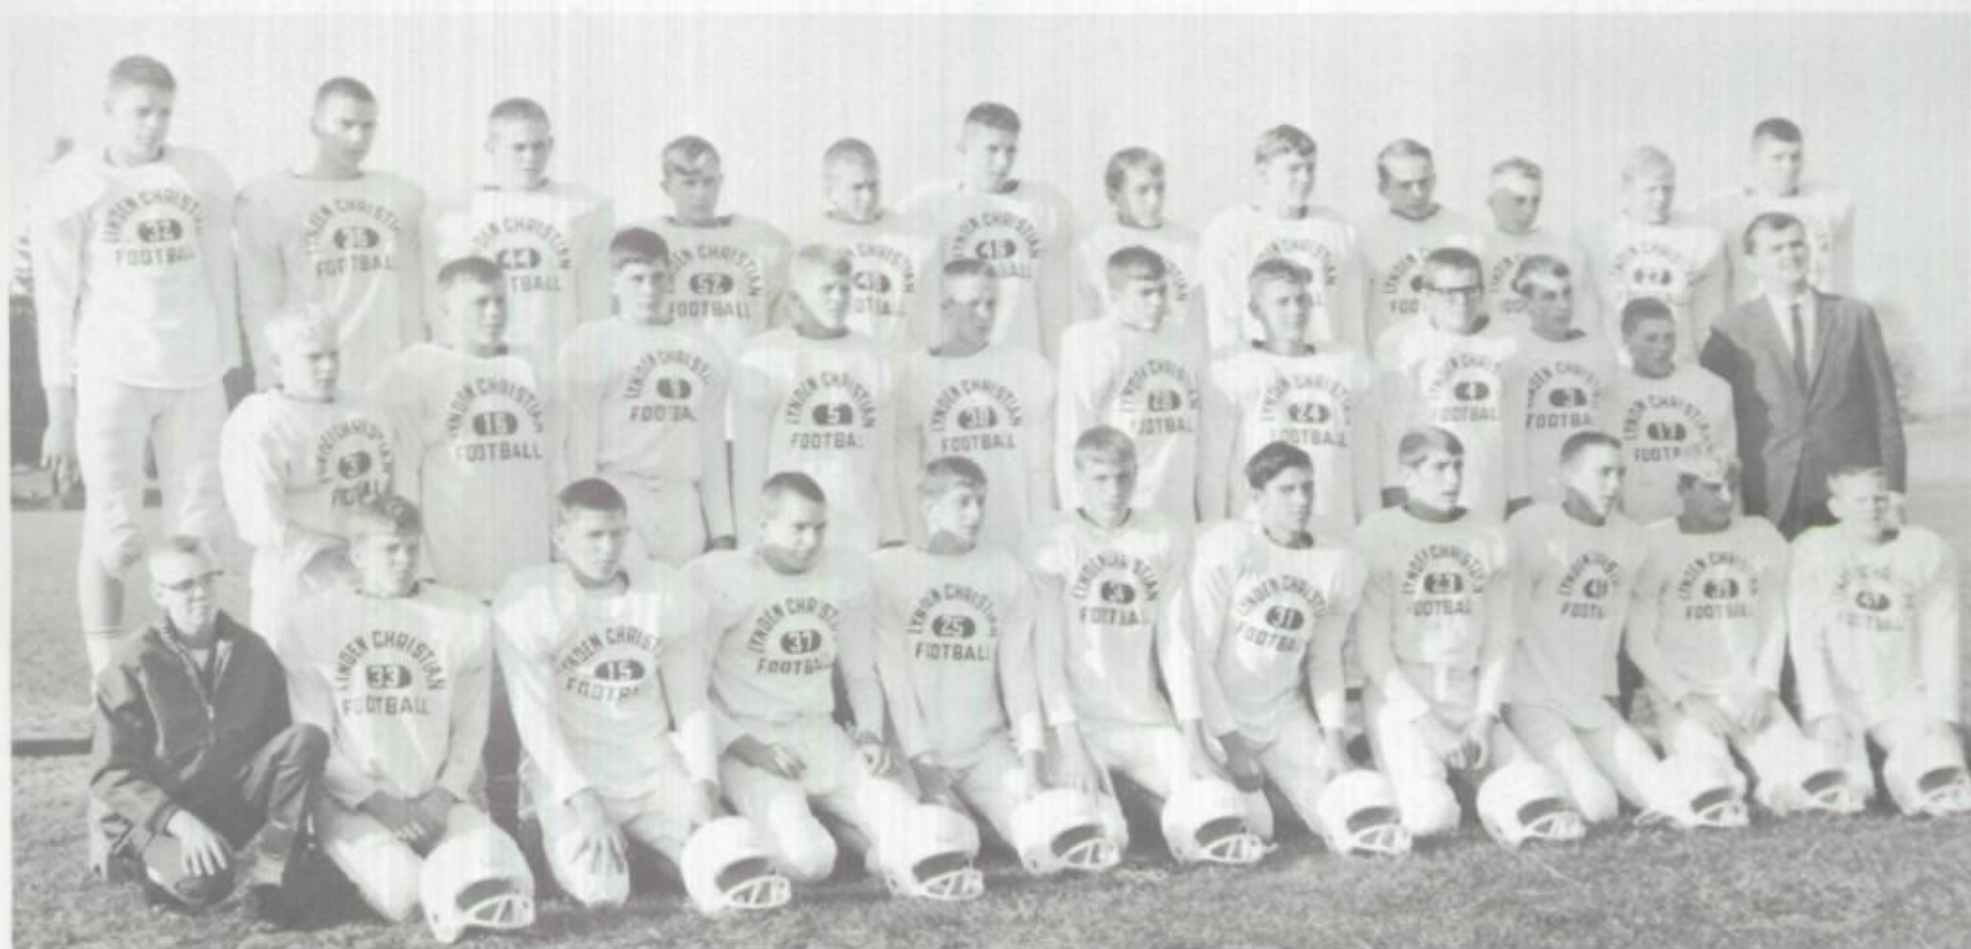

Practise and hard work proved necessary before the Freshmen football players challenged their first opponent, Nook-sack. Victory was sweet! By the end of the season they had established a fairly good record. They proved harder to beat than many expected.

This eager group gained first-hand knowledge of what was to be expected of them in the years to come, along with invaluable game experience. These experiences were rewarding and would lead to satisfying future years of competition on the field.

Anxious Freshmen See Good Year

A whistle, a jumpball, and another game begins. These sports enthusiasts found high school competition harder than before. Eager to win, they challenged many county schools. Some they beat, some proved to be too good for them. Spectators always enjoyed exciting games. These boys displayed many good team efforts which accounted for their exceptional seasonal record.

With five wins and no losses this year's Frosh baseball team really impressed the student body. Meredian and Lynden Christian both went undefeated to share the League crown. Pitcher Brent De Hoog gained credit for these wins. We'll be glad to have this addition to our varsity team next year.

Junior High Track Team

Once again the Freshmen Track Team has been neglected. In the rush of finishing the Excelsior the track pictures were misplaced. The track team did do very good this year. Members of the team are: Jeff Kok, Louie Koster, Henry Weg, Tennis De Jong, Byron Kooy, Galen Van Kyken, Bob Van Dyken, Keith Vd Pol, Keith Bouma, Bob Lenssen, Bob Libolt, Tom Negen, Keith Bode, Rick Holleman, Don Scholten, Roger Boersema, Randy Heeringa, John Scholten, Stan Van Diest, John Dykman, Marb Enfield, Ron Dykstra, Glen Blankers. Some eighth graders were also on this track team. These are: August Berendsen, Kent Van Dyke, Doug Lankhaar, Brad De Waard, Keith Timmer, Bryan Brink, Wayne Kaemingk.

Thus they who mark from day to day
In Christian acts their radiant way,
Tread the same path their Saviour trod,
The path to glory, and to God.

The task Thy wisdom has assigned,
Oh, let me cheerfully fulfill;
In all Thy works Thy presence find,
And prove thy good and perfect will.

SENIORS

Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

Seniors Return After Day of Freedom

Boarding a charter bus early in the morning the Seniors began their one day of freedom away from the halls of LCHS. After a ride up into the mountains we enjoyed tours of Ross and Diablo Dam and returned finding a "huge" noon meal awaiting us at the base of the Diablo Dam. The day was climaxed by attending the Ice Follies at the Seattle Civic Center.

Seniors Finish Year in Strange Attire

Clowns were many and the horses were few at the annual Senior masquerade party. The Burlington Roller Rink held us for skating and soon the big mass picked itself up and relocated for pizzas at Shakeys. There were nigger babies, Little Bo Peep, Uncle Sam, hippies, and grannies. This traditional last party of the Seniors is something that will be long remembered.

Graduates Receive Final Address

Traditional church services were held in Bethel this year. Rev. Donald Negen spoke on the theme the Seniors had chosen--We'll Never Walk Alone. Special music was provided by Alice De Jong. At this service, each Senior was reminded of the challenges and decisions he would now face, but with a guide like Christ we will never face these times alone!

We'll Never Walk Alone

Every good thing must come to an end--so the Seniors realized at Graduation. Elaine Boxum, the class speaker, captured the emotions, thoughts, feelings, and goals of the graduating students. The class song, We'll Never Walk Alone, was lead by Gloria Haak. Here also the students expressed their belief in Christ as their guide. As the seniors received their diplomas from Mr. Zylstra, they realized that this marked the end of twelve years of study, but also a wonderful beginning of new hopes, fears, and challenges.

Seniors Recall Lasting Friendships

"As we pause to take another look back at all the friends and memories we're leaving behind, traces of smiles, sadness, tears, and yes, even fright, cross our faces.

As these thoughts go through our mind, it seems that all the hands that have held us steady so far, those of parents, teachers, friends, and ministers, are no longer there to hold us upright and we have to take the next shaky steps by ourselves. Suddenly we feel alone, horribly alone.

But wait, fellow graduates, we're not alone nor will we ever be alone. There's someone standing on the path just waiting for us to put our hand in His. He's been there all the time and He's ready and willing to help us take our next step."

Acknowledgements

We acknowledge many for their assistance. The staff's first thanks goes to Mr. Vander Pol, our advisor. His emphasis on perfection and endless supply of ideas helped to motivate our work. We are also grateful to Jim Palm who worked so patiently with us. Special thanks goes to Van Horn Photography and our staff photographers, Larry Honcoop and Jim Baron. Last but not least, we thank all of you who provided the action and the story for our book.

We, the annual staff of Lynden Christian School, made this history book for you--the students and faculty--and we hope that you will accept it with the same enthusiasm with which we present it to you.
